DIPLOMATS' CONFERENCE

Spanish Minister to Mexico Calls All Foreign Representatives to Consider Huerta Dictatorship—O'Shaughnessy Summoned to Foreign Office by Telephone.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 14.—The Spanish minister to Mexico has called a conference of the entire diplomatic corps in the Mexican capital to discuss Huerta's decree of dictatorship and the situation generally. Advice to this effect reached the State Department today from Charge d'Affairs Nelson O'Shaughnessy.

Mexico City, October 15.—Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affairs, was requested by telephone to call at the Mexican foreign office late last night, at the conclusion of the cabinet meeting which had discussed the two communications from the United States government. These communications, it is reported, contained a warning against the Mexican government permitting harm to come to the Mexican deputies imprisoned by Huerta and referred also to the unconstitutionality of the dissolution of the Chamber of Deputies.

The American charge visited the foreign office and remained some time in conference, but declined to say what occurred.

Huerta Charged With Bad Faith By Pres. Wilson

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., October 15.—Instructions were delivered by the United States to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affairs at Mexico City, defining the attitude of the United States.

The message stated that President Wilson is shocked at the methods employed by General Huerta in declaring himself dictator, and that the United States is deeply distressed at the situation, and regards it as an act of bad faith on the part of Huerta.

The message also stated that the course of Huerta destroys all hope of an election, as it is believed an election could not now be held and the result represents the will of the people, and the president would not feel justified in accepting the result as such.

Senator Clark Fears Japanese Invasion of Florida.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Representative Frank Clark of Florida addressed a letter to Governor Trammell, urging him to call a special session of the Florida legislature to enact a law that would prohibit Japanese and people of like races from owning land within the state. Mr. Clark said he was actuated by reports that Japanese had been acquiring property in his state. "Japan is looking for more territory," he wrote the governor. "It is her purpose to colonize a large part of Mexico and it is also her purpose to locate within the borders of continental United States as many thousands and hundreds of thousands of Japanese as we will permit, her ultimate purpose being war with this country."

NO ONE KNOWS WHEN A VERDICT WILL BE GIVEN

By Associated Press.

Albany, N. Y., October 15.—Guessing when a verdict will be reached on the question of the innocence or guilt of Gov. Sulzer is about as uncertain a thing as can be done. GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION BURNING OF VOLTURNO Modest Survivor Reaches New York and Unfolds a Thrilling Story of the Terrific Fire and Storm Which Claimed 156 Souls Caught on Board Ill-Fated Ship.

By Associated Press.

New York, October 15.—Bissenman, a quiet mannered man of 35 years, gives a thrilling account of his experiences during the 18 hours aboard the fire-swept Voltorno.

The cause of the explosion was in one of the drums which contained chemicals or oils in the forward part of the vessel.

"I was just going to the bridge when I felt the Voltorno tremble as if struck by a heavy shell. I heard Capt. Inch on the bridge overhead say:

"Man the life boats."

"Passengers came running in a panic to the deck."

"The flames swept on and leaped to the forecastle. The gale fanned the fire. Boats were lowered and made way only to be lost sometime after in the raging trough of the sea."

1st Explosion Killed Ninety

By Associated Press.

New York, October 15.—Between 80 and 90 passengers from the Voltorno were caught in the first explosion on the vessel on Thursday morning and all were killed almost instantly.

This news was brought by one of the rescuing vessels which docked here at noon today, and which carried 195 of the rescued passengers. It came from Waldron Bisselman, 3rd officer of the vessel which arrived at one o'clock this afternoon.

The Red Cross and Jewish organizations together with friends and relatives gathered to meet the refugees.

DEMOCRAT SCORES IN REPUBLICAN DISTRICT

NEELY IS EASY WINNER

Democrat Elected to Congress in Normally Republican District.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 15.—Major Matthew M. Neely, Democrat, by a plurality of nearly 3,500 was returned a winner in the special congressional election held to name a successor to Hon. John W. Davis, recently appointed solicitor general of the United States.

State Senator J. G. Hearne, Republican, ran second in the race, and Hon. George A. Laughlin, Progressive, a poor third, his vote and that of Hearne barely exceeding that of Neely. It was the second congressional election since the passage of the Underwood law, and the Democratic victory in a normally Republican district is taken to mean that the voters are willing to give the law a test.

helped to lower three boats. As they struck the water the heavy sea whirled them over. The chief officers were swept overboard.

"I held on and climbed to the deck. The captain ordered his men to fight the fire. They coupled the hose to the pumps and stretched the lines through the smoking flames."

"We commenced working the wire, less and within an hour the Carmania came to us at full speed. Passengers were huddled together in wild panic. The captain shouted that the Carmania was coming. Many fell on their knees; the panic ended."

"Several of the second officers pressed forward to help the captain in the fight. They met him in the thick of the smoke, eyes badly burned and half blinded. The steward was ordered to bring the passengers food."

"It was then that we remembered the 80 or 90 steerage passengers forgotten in the busy fight. We could only imagine what happened to them as none were able to get to the upper decks. Capt. Inch in desperation said: 'I don't think we can last long now.' He was groaning. His eyes were almost out and he could not see to read the wireless messages. He refused to eat."

CAPTAIN TELLS MODEST STORY

Inch Describes Destruction of Liner Volturmo.

LEAVES OUT ALL THE FRILLS

Fails to Mention the Heroism Which Is Credited to Him by Other Survivors—Declares Passengers Were Easily Controlled and Panic Scenes Lacking in Departure From Burning Vessel.

New York, Oct. 15.—Captain Francis Inch, the young commander of the Volturmo, whose courage and resolution were praised by the survivors that landed in France and England from four steamships, radiographed his story of the disaster to the Atlantic line here. He makes no mention of panic or mutiny. If Captain Inch's eyes were injured by fire or smoke or if he was hurt otherwise, he says nothing about it in his modest report. This was the message that General Manager Thomas of the line received from Captain Inch, who is on board the Kroonland. It was dated Stable Island.

"At 6:50 a. m. Oct. 19th, 1913, fire was reported in hold No. 1 by the chief officer. The flames burning in hold No. 1 spread, setting fire to the fore-cabin and all the deck fittings. "I slowed the ship down and kept her before the wind to enable us to put the steam extinguishers in operation. I put into action also three fire hoses from the deck connections. The flames gained rapidly and imprisoned the watch below, who were burned to death in the fore-cabin.

"A series of explosions now occurred, wrecking the saloon and hospital amidships, the compass and steering gear being also damaged by the explosions. I gave orders to get help by wireless as soon as the flames burst through the hatches. It seemed impossible to save the ship. I ordered the boats provisioned and swung out. The ship was rolling heavily. Boats 1 and 5 were smashed, but No. 2 was lowered into the water with cabin passengers and stewardess in charge of Chief Officer H. P. Miller.

"After the boat had left the ship she capsized, throwing the occupants into the water. She righted herself afterward and several of the crew got back into the boat, the chief officer being one of them. No. 6 boat was lowered and got away safely, filled with steerage passengers. In charge of Fourth Officer Langsell. No. 7 boat, on being lowered, was caught under the stern of the ship. The boat was completely wrecked.

Flames Apparently Subdued.

"Meanwhile the chief engineer, two seamen and myself fought the fire and apparently subdued the flames. I gave orders to send no more boats away, as I had received word from the Carmania that she hoped to be with us by 11 a. m. Life belts were served out and put on each passenger. The passengers now became calmer. Food was served out to them.

At 9 a. m. the bunkers were found to be ablaze. It was impossible for us to stay in the bunkers, and fight the fire on account of the gases that were generated. The water-tight doors were closed and water was poured down No. 2 hatch on the fire, but the fire gained all the time.

"At 11 a. m. the Carmania arrived and lowered a boat, but her boat could not reach us on account of the high seas. I asked the Carmania to search for the two boats. The Seydlitz then arrived and lowered boats, which could not reach us. About 3 p. m. the Carmania returned and tried to get life rafts to us, but all drifted past the bow, too far away.

"Several steamers had arrived by dusk. The Kroonland put away boats, which made four attempts to come alongside, but were swept away each time. At 9:30 p. m. the saloon and charthouse were flaming and the deck, bridge and all before the funnel were blazing fiercely. The pumps and dynamo had stopped for lack of steam and the Marconi operators were working with the accumulators until 11 p. m. when the magazine on the bridge blew up, carrying away the aerials.

Induced Passengers to Jump.

"Several boats by this time were laying off the ship. They induced some of the passengers to jump. These passengers were taken into the boats. At midnight the weather was overcast and squally. The rescuing boats suspended operations then, as it was too dark for them to see. The fire meanwhile had worked through the women's part of the steerage to the after end of the ship, but I kept knowledge of this from the passengers, who remained quiet the rest of the night.

"The chief engineer, the Marconi men, some seamen and myself spent the night making small rafts in case the fire burned through the deck before daylight. At 5:15 a. m., at which time the first boat got near us, the weather and sea had moderated. The boats were able to come alongside and the passengers were enabled to embark quickly. All steamers lying around the ship sent boats now, and were enabled to load three boats with passengers at once. Passengers left very orderly and there was no panic. Women broke down and cried when help came alongside. Soon all were off the ship. This was at 8 a. m., when about 400 passengers had been taken off.

"I searched the ship myself and found no one else on board, so decided to abandon her, as No. 3 hatch was well alight by now. So with the remains of the crew I embarked on the Kroonland. Nothing has been heard of the two missing boats. All passing vessels have been asked to keep a lookout for them.

"Following are the names of the steamers who came to our assistance. Carmania, Grosser Kurfuerst, La Touraine, Asian, Narragansett, Seydlitz, Minneapolis, Devonian, Carr, Rappahannock, and the tank steamer New York. The Volturmo was abandoned in latitude 48:30 north, longitude 34:57 west."

CIRCLEVILLE HAS WIRELESS STATION

"It is not generally known that this city possesses a wireless station," says the Circleville Union Herald.

"James P. Moffitt, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company has been experimenting with wireless telegraphy for nearly two years and has constructed a station at his father's home on East Franklin street. He has placed a hundred foot pole in the rear of the lot which catches through the antenna messages for a radius of one thousand miles and nearly every night he catches the longitude and direction in which vessels are sailing.

"So far Mr. Moffitt has constructed a receiving station only, but he soon expects to have his sending station finished, and then will apply for a government experimental license which will permit him to send out calls for a zone of 250 meter radius or more. Amateurs can only use a zone of 200 meter radius, but Mr. Moffitt believes that as he has been conducting experiments for nearly two years he will be given the license as an experimental operator. He uses the Continental code which is different from the Morse code in that no dashes are used.

"Recently Mr. Moffitt, just before retiring, picked up Key West, Florida, wireless station, which was calling Colon, Panama, and to verify his work he wrote the wireless operator in charge of the Key West station and received the following reply from A. Dislander, one of the operators, which shows that he was in communication with Key West: "In looking over our log book for September 29, I find that at the time you mention in your letter we were working M. A. X. Colon, and compliment you upon your excellent work in receiving signals. As this station is known to do long distance work we are not surprised at hearing of your being able to copy us in Circleville. We are to begin our regular schedule work in October with San Francisco, California, N. P. H. If you listen at times around 4 a. m. you may hear us working."

"Among our largest actual communication is the record last winter, having successfully copied and received O. K. messages from Unalga Island, Alaska, a distance of 6,000 miles.

"Although we have never heard Cairo, Egypt, they sent us for confirmation ten messages which they copied while we were sending them to other stations. That distance was 7,000 miles, establishing a record of the world."

Speaks Highly Of Local Man's Swine

The following is an excerpt from a recent article in the Swine Breeder's Journal, and speaks very highly of a local man's herd of swine:

"Hugh K. Stewart, Washington C. H., Ohio, has a herd of Durocs that should attract attention. First, because he has all the prominent blood lines; second, he has the useful type, with the growth and frame that make the profitable kind; and third, he has made a special and successful trial of the immunized treatment. All his pigs are given the serum-simultaneous treatment when from ten days to three weeks old, then again at weaning time, and third treatment September 1st. This surely immunizes them for life, so in this offering you get animals bred right, grown right and immunized right.

"This sale will be held Saturday, October 25. The offering will consist of forty head of yearlings, all useful type and grown so they will continue to be useful to all purchasers. They are sired by Top Col. 10th by Morton's Top Col. Advance Instructor, he by Instructor and Kelley's Pilot Wonder.

Too Far "On Tick"

"The high cost of living" has become a 20th century slogan, cried in every newspaper and magazine and stirring to life a sentiment which is not always based on accurate knowledge.

This slogan is one which startles, embitters and terrifies the world of daily wage earners; disturbs the individuals with average settled incomes, and even claims the attention of the man of large means, so persistent is its cry. It leads all classes to place upon the vendor of life's necessities, contumely for the high prices demanded; it many a time thrusts blame where undeserved.

A drastic writer goes deeply into the heart of the present dissatisfaction when he says: "The trouble is this: all the world wants things beyond its immediate purchasing power, and it has mortgaged the future recklessly. The whole range of supply and demand is involved. Let's slow down for a while and save a dollar or two. A period of Ben Franklin thrift would work wonders."

Too far "on tick!" The temptation to extravagance beyond the income's justification!

The Becky Sharps and Rawdon Crawleys are confined to the pages of "Vanity Fair." More and more is demanded with the added luxuries of civilization. More and more has reckless spending, foolish borrowing been indulged to gratify tastes of pleasure and luxury until hardships followed and the penalty for going too far "on tick" had to be paid.

Everybody wants what everybody else has. If it happens to be a piano-player or an automobile, why, a piano-player or an automobile it must be—on the installment plan if that's the only way to get it.

The aforementioned caustic writer says: "Saving was a cardinal virtue when Ben Franklin was alive. It was supposed to have some correspondence with sterling character. To day, with many people, it is only a necessity—a bitter compulsion to stave off all possible want between jobs or to meet payments on some extravagant purchase."

Instead of regarding work as the end of life too many regard pleasure as the prime object. "White collar" jobs are in demand. Farm labor is as scarce as the austere faith of Plymouth Rock.

There must be a regulation of desires in accord with the income, a common sense living to insure any real comfort in this day of high living.

The man with the $500 income cannot expect to live like the man with the $1,000 income, nor the $1,000 man like the man whose income rolls up in the thousands.

There is the gist of the trouble—not content to live in the manner justified by the income of the individual goes too far "on tick," and whetted by a taste of the sweets of luxury and pleasure, finds a return to the simpler life more and more impossible.

To obtain baubles that glisten much brighter in the distance there has been a sacrifice of the independent spirit which refuses to be beholden to any man and becomes deeper and deeper enslaved as it keeps on paying-pawnbroker's tickets.

Back of all the truth of the high cost of living cry is the fact that too many are recklessly going too far "on tick."

Agriculture Must Be Made Profitable For Farmer of Average Ability

By CHARLES F. SANFORD,

President of the Farmers' National Congress

THERE is a great margin of expense somewhere between producer and consumer which leads to the justly founded complaint of the ultimate consumer of the high cost of living. This leads to confusion in the public mind as to the REAL STATUS OF THE FARMER and the profits arising from his occupation. During the last two decades the AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY HAS NOT KEPT PACE WITH THE INCREASE OF POPULATION, falling behind 15.3 per cent. During this same period there has come an extraordinary increase in the valuation of farm lands until it is NO LONGER AN EASY OR SIMPLE MATTER FOR THE AVERAGE FARMER TO BECOME THE OWNER OF A WELL IMPROVED FARM. Moreover, the percentage of tenant farmers is steadily increasing, in some states with alarming rapidity. It cannot be said with any show of reason that the growth of a tenant class indicates a stable or desirable economic condition.

WITHOUT MINIMIZING IN ANY DEGREE THE IMPORTANCE OF EFFORTS TO INCREASE PRODUCTION AND TO CONSERVE THE FERTILITY OF THE SOIL IT MAY BE SAFELY AFFIRMED THAT AMERICAN AGRICULTURE WILL NEVER BE PERMANENTLY ESTABLISHED UNTIL IT IS MADE POSSIBLE FOR IT TO BECOME PERMANENTLY PROFITABLE FOR THE FARMER OF AVERAGE ABILITY.

While the man of exceptional ability or exceptionally favorable circumstances MAY BECOME WEALTHY by reason of increase in land values or good fortune in the yields of good crops, the stability of agriculture and the ultimate prosperity of our entire citizenship depend chiefly on the measure of prosperity which attends the labors of the average farmer in the average farm home.

Poetry For Today

Something Good About Him.
Pick out the folks you like the least
and watch 'em for awhile;
They never waste a kindly word,
they never waste a smile;
They criticize their fellow men at every chance they get,
They never found a human just to suit their fancy yet.
From them I guess you'd learn some things, if they were pointed out,
Some things that every one of us should know a lot about.
When someone "knocks" a brother,
pass around the loving cup,
Say something good about him, if you have to make it up.

It's safe to say that every man God made holds trace of good.
That he would fain exhibit to his fellows if he could;
The kindly deeds in many a soul are hibernating there,
Awaiting the encouragement of other souls that dare
To show the best that's in them, and a universal move
Would start the whole world moving in a helpful, helpful groove;
Say something sweet to paralyze the
"knocker" in the spot,
Speak kindly of his victim if you know the man or not.

The eyes that peer and peer to find the worst a brother holds;
The tongue that speaks in bitterness that frosts and fumes and scolds;
The hands that bruise the fallen, though their strength was made to raise
The weaklings who have stumbled at the parting of the ways—
All these should be forgiven, for
"They know not what they do,"
Their hindrance makes a greater work for wiser ones like you.
So when they scourge a wretched one whose drained sin's bitter cup,
Say something good about them, if you have to make it up.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

Pennsylvania railroad made nearly 185,000 efficiency tests in August to ascertain the observance of train safety rules. Failures to observe rules are reported in only 79 cases.

The opinion has developed in Washington that the administration will favor an appropriation for the building of three battleships by congress in its coming session and that it will as a general policy favor the lifting of the American Navy to the second place among those of nations, passing Germany which now stands next to Great Britain. The appropriation of $148,000,000 is predicted and this is counted upon to reestablish the policy of building two dreadnoughts in each year with the third added to compensate for the reduction to one by Democratic action in the last congress.

A remarkable feat was accomplished by Capt. Charlton, who recently brought the Harold, a sailing vessel of 1,300 tons, laden with wheat into Queenstown harbor. Without a single officer the voyage was made from Australia, a distance of 15,000 miles. Having failed to find officers in Australian ports he set sail for England with a crew all but two of whom were foreigners ignorant of navigation. The voyage lasted 108 days. During one period of 42 days the captain never removed his clothing and during most of the voyage he had to obtain snatches of sleep as well as he could on a deck chair at the pilot of the vessel.

A gourmet garage, said to have been the first to have been established in the country, was instituted by the Stark county suffragists at their rest tent at the recent fair held at Youngstown. Go-carts of all makes and speeds were lined up in the tent while the mothers took in the exhibits. Then a large rest room was in a tent adjoining. The suffragists not only took care of the baby carriages, but arranged pillows and blankets for the babies to take their afternoon nap. The two tents and contents proved a great attraction for fair visitors.

The notorious red light district called the Barbary Coast of San Francisco is no more. A place that has been a flagrant scandal for 50 years is now cleaned up, and the result has come in less than two years after California women got to vote.

Ten young men from as many states have waited since early in October for Capt. Cliff Sands to meet with them on Catalina island off the coast of California, disclosed on Monday what the authorities believe to be a "buried treasure" scheme. According to the story, each man subscribed $350 to a proposed treasure hunting expedition in the South Seas, which "Captain Sands," a mariner, promised to conduct. Magazine ads of Sands, they said, pictured fortunes. The treasure hunters said they sent their money to Sands at Seattle and were instructed to meet him on Catalina Island.

PROCEEDS FOR BENEVOLENT WORK

SOME FACTS CONCERNING ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS

An Organization Reaching to Every Corner of the World, Giving Civilization an Unbiased Report of All Happenings of Consequence.

ASSOCIATED PRESS SENDS
NO BIASED NEWS REPORTS.

Recognized as Fair to All Political Parties and Factions, Its News Reports are Received by Publications of All Political Faith and Their Absolute Authenticity Has Never Been Questioned.

With the installation of the pre-eminent service of the Associated Press by The Daily Herald, it is well that the people of this city be given a few facts in regard to this great news gathering organization.

The most remote sections of the earth are watched daily and hourly for happenings of interest to civilization. Trained writers and news-gatherers of the Associated Press are first on the ground no matter whether the occasion be war or pestilence, and no matter where the location.

Every capital of every nation and every state, every city and town of consequence is "covered" by The Associated Press.

The wires of The Associated Press carry instantly across land and sea the news of the day while it is news.

The Washington Daily Herald is now receiving The Associated Press Dispatches. It is the first time in the history of Washington that a local newspaper has demonstrated so much faith in the bigness of Washington.

The Herald believes that Washington is big enough now to become one of the cities on The Associated Press circuit and as a proof of its faith, has installed the direct service.

Here are a few facts of interest:

It will be well if The Associated Press, its purposes and practices were better understood alike by reader and editor. The institution bears a very important relation to American life and is well worth studying. Its telegrams are printed primarily in 850 newspapers and are copied or re-written in unnumbered thousands of other daily, weekly or monthly publications. It is safe to say that they are read by over three-fourths of the people of the country, and from the intelligence they convey practically everyone gathers his information respecting current events.

All will agree that it is important, to use no stronger word, that the market reports be trustworthy. What assurance is there, not only that the reports of The Associated Press are honest, but that out of the necessities of the case, they must be more certain of accuracy than any other market reports? One good reason arises out of the magnitude of the Association's work. There are persons who think it would be better to have a half-dozen small agencies acting in sharp competition, but this is a mistake. Such rivalry would doubtless tend to the greatest celerity in gathering the news. But such rivalry would not, from any point of view, tend to greater accuracy. And it is far less important that the citizen gets prompt news than that he gets true news. However desirable it may be to be first in the field in the presentation of news, and this feature of the work is not to be undervalued, still its reputation for truth and strict impartiality is the best asset of The Associated Press. And no smaller agency can possibly give as great a guarantee for accuracy or impartiality.

First there are the traditions of half a century which must be lived up to. This spirit which animates every one in the service is a good deal, but it is not all. More important is the fact that every telegram of The Associated Press is subjected to such a degree of censorship as to make untruthful or biased reports practically impossible. Every one familiar with the work knows it is impossible for any one in the service, from the General Manager to the least important agent at the most remote point, to send out an untruthful dispatch and escape detection. One may write a biased or inaccurate statement for a single newspaper and succeed with it, but this cannot be done with the argus-eyed millions who read the dispatches of The Associated Press. Obviously then, the very magnitude of The Associated Press work tends to make truthfulness and impartiality in the service imperative. It cannot be used to "grind any one's ax," to serve any special interest, or to help any political party or faction or propaganda.

This is not laying claim to any great virtue. It is saying that, under its system of operation and in view of the millions of critics passing upon its work, The Associated Press is automatically truthful and fair. If a man complains that The Associated Press is run in the interest of this party, or that, it is perfectly clear that what he wants is not fair play, but a leaning his way. As one evidence of the truthfulness of The Associated Press reports, it is significant that, during the existence of the present organization, damages have never been paid in any action for libel.

SALES OF HOGS LARGELY ATTENDED

A large crowd of buyers from a half-score of states attended the J. W. Townsley hog sale on the Townsley farm southeast of town Tuesday, and a good sale resulted.

The general average of the 57 fine Poland-China pigs sold at public auction was nearly $30, and many of them went to the buyers from other states.

Mr. Townsley is one of the best known breeders of fine hogs in Fayette county.

The J. M. Klever & Son sale of Poland-China pigs is being held today on the Klever farm four miles north of Bloomingburg. The usual large crowd is in attendance.

'Singin' Skule" Makes Big Hit

It was no idle boast of advance advertising that the "Singin' Skule," put on by the Loyal Daughters of the Christian church, at Memorial hall, Tuesday night, would make a hit.

The hall was crowded and from the first rise of the curtain the "Singin' Skule," the immense audience sat in delighted expectation, each appearance of the scholars of the school the signal for a fresh burst of laughter. It was an evening of side-splitting entertainment.

The character of the "Singin' Skule" is too well known to need elaboration. Suffice to say that Tuesday night brought out all the funny makeups and all the funny types in a new and original way and there wasn't a slow moment in the performance.

Miss Kittie Miller, of St. Louis, Mo., personal director of the play, took the role of teacher. Mr. Walter Sprenger, her husband. The good little boy and the bad little boy, the smart little girl, the yellow kid, and the twins, all the pupils expected to appear in the skule were on deck, speaking and singing and in costumes that were beyond description.

Miss Esther Leland, one of Washington's well known readers, in the role of Jerusalem Jenkins, reading a number of her own compositions, brought down the house and another of the evening's biggest successes was made by Miss Ada Woodward and Mr. Earl Peterson in an excruciating take-off "Romeo and Juliet in Shakespeare." Each scholar was capital in the role assigned.

The capable committee in charge was composed by Misses Mabel Jones, Grace McCoy and Sue Williams. Over $100 was added to the treasury of the Loyal Daughters.

LAST CONCERT OF SERIES GIVEN

The final concert of the series was given by the Imperial band Tuesday night, at the intersection of Court and Fayette streets, and was enjoyed by a crowd of several hundred persons.

The series of concerts has been a pleasure to hundreds of Washington citizens, and each succeeding number has been thoroughly enjoyed, and the band has been at its best.

It is with genuine regret that music lovers realize that no more concerts will be given this season, as open air concerts have always been popular in this city, although not well supported financially.

Plans for having a full summer series of concerts next year will be taken up later.

A horse show will be a feature of the meet. A number of persons from this city will attend the races.

La Grecque

One of the many attractions of
Craig Bros' Corset Department

La Grecque Feature Corsets Thigh Reducing Models

WHEN fashion decreed that hips must go, the ordinary corset was at once taken in and flattened to give the desired effect, but being simply made smaller on the hips the flesh had to go some where and bulged out below the corset, and prominent flesh below the corset lines became the smart woman's despair, because there seemed no way either of curing or avoiding it.

All sorts of devices were tried, but it remained for La Grecque Corset to be made in a practical, durable, moderate priced stock model, that equalizes the flesh, giving the desired straight, unbroken lines from bust to knee.

NEGLIGENT FATHER DRAWS HEAVY FINE

Probate Judge Allen Tuesday fined William Wolfe, of Yeoman street, $200 and the costs for failure to provide for his three minor children as he had agreed to some three months ago when brought before the court on a charge of neglecting his children.

In addition to the fine of $200, the man was given three months in the workhouse, but the fine was suspended upon his agreement to get busy and stay busy supporting his minor children.

He will be kept under the surveillance of the court, and if he fails to keep his agreement the workhouse will claim him next time.

FAYETTE WHEAT IS LOOKING WELL

The large acreage of wheat sown in Fayette county this season is doing exceptionally well, and as a result of the beautiful weather the past few weeks the wheat has gained a good foothold and will go into the winter in splendid condition.

The weather has been ideal both for sowing the wheat and for giving it a good start.

So far no pests of a serious character have been reported this fall, while during some previous falls the fly has been active.

Farmers are very well pleased with the present prospect for a wheat crop next season, believing that if the wheat enters the winter in good condition that it is half of the battle.

SICKLY CHILDREN

Made Strong and Well by Vinol.

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in our whole stock for making weak, puny, ailing children strong, robust and rosy we are only telling you what has been proved by hundreds of mothers.

J. L. Fickling, Macon, Ga., says: "My child was very thin and delicate no appetite, nervous, and did not sleep well. Doctors did not help her. Vinol was recommended and the change after a fair trial was wonderful. She sleeps soundly all night, has a splendid appetite and has gained in weight. I wish every mother knew what Vinol will do for delicate children."

What Vinol did for this little girl it will do for every weak and ailing child because sickly children need the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains—that is why Vinol builds them up quickly and gives them a fine healthy color. It is pleasant to take and we guarantee that the results will satisfy you—money back if they do not. Blackmer & Tanquary.

NEW MAN AWAITS TO BE CHECKED IN

Mr. C. E. Brooks, former D. T. & L. agent at Ironton, has arrived in this city for the purpose of assuming charge of the local D. T. & L. office, but so far the auditor of the road has not been here to check him in, and Mr. J. M. Lucas, who was appointed temporary agent a few weeks ago, still retains active hold on the reins of the office.

Just when Mr. Brooks will be duly installed here has not been announced as there is apparently some misunderstanding over the matter.

The alley near the court house and the one extending from the court house to North street, have been broken and the excavating work is under way.

The Greene County Commissioners visited the Joint County Tuberculosis Hospital at Springfield this week, making the visit without previous announcement, and after inspecting the hospital they were much pleased with it and said that no further fight would be made, but they would "pay up" as agreed three or four years ago when the institution was first founded.

A legal battle recently closed whereby the courts decreed that Greene county should pay her share of the cost of the joint county institution.

CONTRACTOR BOPE GOES TO THE WALL

Contractor Edward E. Bope, who originally held the contract for constructing the Masonic Temple in this city, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, giving his liabilities at $250,000 and with no assets. His creditors are principally lumber and material supply firms throughout Ohio and other states.

The work of Contractor Bope on his contract here was so slow that the directors of the Masonic Temple Company purchased his interests several months ago and have been finishing the contract themselves.

The man has contracts in hand which are uncompleted and represent a value of $70,000 to $80,000.

He is indebted to the Board of Education of Greenfield for some $15,000 because of uncompleted work.

FINAL ESTIMATES SHOW LARGE SHORTAGE

Final estimates made by the United States Department of Agriculture place the shortage of the corn crop at 774,000,000 bushels lower than the crop last year, or give the total production at 2,351,000,000 bushels.

An improvement in the condition of the crop last month caused the department to raise its estimate some 22,000,000 bushels.

In Ohio the crop condition is 80, against 90 last year. The average for the past ten years has been 84.

Fayette's crop is a big one and the work of harvesting it is now under way.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT AT FATAL TURN

A party of Mt. Sterling automobilists escaped death in a very miraculous way a night or two ago when their touring car, going at good speed, left the road at the same point where Harley Kilgore was fatally injured a few weeks ago, and struck the same tree that the machine did which carried the unfortunate man.

The scene of the accident is near Harrisburg, and the party of Mt. Sterling people went through the fence at the same place, crashed into the same tree and the auto stopped near where the Rogers' machine came to a rest. Excepting bruises and cuts the occupants of the Mt. Sterling machine suffered little injury.

Their machine was badly wrecked and was taken to Columbus for repairs.

BEWARE OF WOMAN WITH $20 BILLS

A strange woman has made her appearance in this part of Ohio, who is one of the smoothest film-flammers ever operating in the Buckeye state.

A day or two ago she stopped in Circleville where she entered a number of shops, made a small purchase in each place, tendered a $20 bill, but changing her mind she secured a return of the bill and tendered a $1 bill, picking up the bills first handed her as change, and making her get-away before the clerk realized what had happened.

She also tried other "short change" methods, but became frightened and left the place.

NEW HOLLAND MILL IS SOLD

The New Holland mill, located just over the Fayette-Pickaway Col. line, was purchased by E. R. Burton and son of Clarksville, a few days ago, and the new owners will assume charge without delay.

The mill has long been one of the most important industries in New Holland.

INCOME TAX HAS VERY WIDE SCOPE

All Who Get $3,000 or Over a Year Taxable.

WILL PUNISH ALL DODGERS.

Government Requires That All of the Returns Be Made Under Oath—Extent of the Law is Broad—All Who Are Liable and Fail to Make Payment Will Be Fined.

Washington—It now behooves all those with an income of more than $3,000 a year to lay a hand upon a furrowed brow and try to find out how they are going to pay the income tax to the government and what will happen to them if they do not.

Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee, who framed the income tax bill, issued a statement intended to help the taxable persons, and the internal revenue bureau of the treasury department is already at work on a set of instructions which will be issued later.

If the first place, the law about to go into effect includes within its scope all citizens of the United States residing at home or abroad, all persons living in the United States though not citizens thereof and all net incomes from property and business owned or carried on in the United States by aliens.

In every case a deduction of $3,000 is allowed for living expenses. In the case of a husband who is living with his wife or a wife who is living with her husband an additional $1,000 exemption is allowed, so that all paid a married person is entitled to an exemption of $4,000. Only one $4,000 deduction, however, is to be allowed from the aggregate income of both husband and wife.

Under ordinary circumstances incomes are to be computed for the calendar year. In the case of the present year, however, the tax is to be computed only on that portion of the income accruing from March 1 to Dec. 31 next.

The treasury department is preparing blank forms, which will be distributed by the district internal revenue collectors to each taxable person. If you fail to get such a blank you are required under a penalty to apply to the collector or his deputy for one.

Blanks will be on deposit with postmasters for the convenience of taxpayers. Every taxable person is to fill out and return one of these blanks to the internal revenue collector of his district before Jan. 1 and March 1 next.

The taxpayer must fill out under oath a true and accurate statement of his income of $3,000 or more for the calendar year. This return shall set forth specifically the gross amount of income from all separate sources, and from this total shall be deducted the aggregate items of the expenses and allowances authorized under the law.

Any taxpayer who fails to make a return on or before March 1 will be liable to a penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $1,000. If his return is fraudulent it will be a misdemeanor, and he will be subject to a fine of $2,000 or imprisonment for one year or both.

Each taxpayer will be notified by the internal revenue commissioner by June 1, 1914, of the amount of the tax due from him, and the payment must be made by June 30 following. In the event of failure to pay the tax by June 30 and after ten days further notice 5 per cent will be added to the amount of the tax and interest at the rate of 1 per cent a month from the time the tax falls due.

Exceptions are made in regard to penalties in the cases of incomes from the estates of insane, deceased or insolvent persons.

In the case of neglect, or refusal to make returns or in case of false returns the commissioner of internal revenue may make such return himself any time within three years of the date when the return was due.

By accident a New England scientist discovered that sound travels more swiftly over a telephone wire than through the air.

A new telegraph cable from Aden to Hong Kong will be 6000 miles long and will cost $5,000,000.

FLAMES BALK MINE RESCUERS

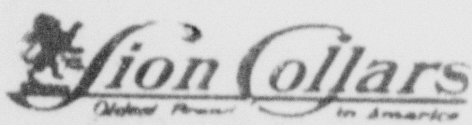

Believed 446 Entombed Welsh Workers Are Dead.

EXPLOSION SHATTERS SHAFTS

Nearly 500 Men and 12 Bodies Removed Before Fire and Afterdamp Drove Brave Comrades Back in Search of Air—Is Biggest Sacrifice of Human Life in British Mining History.

Cardiff, Wales, Oct. 15.—About 446 Welsh coal miners are believed to have lost their lives from fire and afterdamp in the Universal colliery at Senghennydd. The most experienced men in mining accidents said that there was little hope of saving the 434 men still unaccounted for, who are isolated by fire. If this despairing view is verified it will be the biggest human sacrifice in British mining annals.

Nine hundred and thirty-five men went down in the pit before the first explosion shattered the works. Of this number successive parties of rescuers sent up 489 men alive and 12 bodies. This leaves 434 men cooped in by fire, with no chance of reaching them. Efforts to quench the fire have been only partly successful, and it is still burning. An official notice says: "The fire is well in hand, but it is not yet safe to explore the workings." The impossibility up to the present of reaching the burning miners has been due alike to the fire and to falls of the roofs and afterdamp. It is due to the fact that the Universal colliery had two pits, at Lancaster and York, connected by underground, that any men at all were rescued. Only a few of the workmen were hurt by the explosion, the vast majority escaping unscathed. Numbers of men who were working in distant galleries were not aware of the fact that there had been an explosion until their comrades shouted warnings to them. All of these men were quickly raised to the pithead and came out smiling.

PRETTY NEARLY ALL DROP IN LINE FAVORS THE CREATION OF CHURCH PROVINCES

House of Deputies Indorses Joint Commissions Report.

New York, Oct. 15.—The house of deputies of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church went on record as favoring a report of a joint commission which recommended the establishment of church provinces, despite the cry that was raised in the early part of the discussion that the proposed change merely cloaked the desire of its introducers to establish archbishoprics. At the last only West Virginia and southern Virginia of the diocese opposed the scheme.

Only two sections of the proposed canon were adopted, but the principle of provinces was subscribed to and the remaining sections are likely to provoke debate only as to details. The eight missionary and judicial departments of the church, which are composed of several dioceses and missionary districts in each case, are hereafter to be known as provinces. The representative body in the province is to be the provincial council and the president of this body is to be one of the bishops residing in the province, and elected by the bishops and the lay and clerical deputies in the council.

PRESBYTERY ADOPTS SET OF RESOLUTIONS

At the recent meeting of the Chillicothe Presbytery, held in Bainbridge, the following report of the Temperance Committee was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, in view of the importance of the cause in Ohio made by the submission of the "Small Legislature" referendum offered by the liquor and brewery interests, hoping thereby to repeal the "Rose Law" and other temperance measures, and the referendum for the prevention of the shipping of intoxicating liquors into dry territory, presented by the "Anti-Saloon League," we recommend:

First. That every effort be made to arouse the voters to defeat the former and enact the latter.

Second. That each minister in the Presbytery be instructed to present these important issues to his congregation at the earliest possible date.

Third. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to every newspaper within the bounds of the Presbytery with the request to publish.

TENS OF THOUSANDS SECURE PERMITS TO HUNT

Number in Fayette County, However, Is Seventy-three, While Other Counties Show More Than 1,000 —Names of Those Who Have Secured Permits in This County.

SLIPPERY SYLVIA IS FINALLY LANDED

ONCE TOO OFTEN

Sylvia Pankhurst Plays With Police and Lands in Jail. London, Oct. 15.—Sylvia Pankhurst, who was arrested by the police but afterward managed to make her escape, is again in Holloway street jail. After her successful getaway she announced that she would speak at Poplar.

The police were wide awake and caught the young woman just as she was entering the meeting in disguise. Sylvia screamed and fought like a wild person. She was aided by a mob of East End roughs, who are the hereditary enemies of the police and who tried to rescue her. The police were too numerous, however, and Miss Pankhurst is back again on a hunger strike at the old spot.

Columbus, O., Oct. 15.—Police Judge Osborn continued the case of "Put Sandles of the agricultural commission, charged with maintaining a nuisance on the state fair grounds, until Friday morning, when he will render a decision. Mr. Sandles said in court that he was willing to obey any reasonable health regulations.

FUTURES BREAK

New York, Oct. 15.—There was another sharp break in cotton futures, values declining to new low levels on the movement and closing at losses ranging from 18 to 26 points in the more active positions. WILSON TELLS DICTATOR TO DROP HOPE OF RECOGNITION

HUERTA GROWS MORE DEFIANT

Threatens to Order American Warships From Mexican Waters.

PRESIDENT WILSON STANDS PAT

Firmly, but Politely, Informs Dictator That No Matter Who Is Elected President On October 26, the Administration Will Not Be Recognized by United States—Situation Becomes Strained.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Relations between the United States and Mexico have been subjected to such strain the last 48 hours as to cause more anxiety among administration officials concerning the situation than at any other time since the apprehensions regarding the personal safety of John Lind upon his arrival in Mexico. It is now feared that the attitude of each government, as the result of the acts in Washington and Mexico City in the last two days, may prove so offensive that a positive rupture will be unavoidable.

President Wilson followed up his sharp note of Monday, practically demanding that the lives of the imprisoned deputies be safeguarded by Huerta, with a second note much more severe in its terms, notifying the Mexican government that whatever new administration may be set up as a result of the elections on Oct. 26 will be denied recognition by the United States government.

From Mexico City it was learned that the Huerta cabinet has pronounced the note of Monday "intemperate" and is sending a reply immediately. Late information received in Washington through unofficial, but what have heretofore been regarded as reliable sources, was that the Huerta cabinet has decided upon a most defiant reply to the American note of Monday. This Mexican note will include, it is asserted, the statement that if the American battleships now in Mexican waters are not removed therefrom by Oct. 27, the day on which will expire the six months' permission granted by the Mexican congress for their presence in Mexican ports, President Huerta may find himself obliged to adopt drastic measures.

SECOND OPERATION VINDICATES WOMAN

Spokane, Wash., October 15.—Convinced that her appendix was removed during an operation performed for another disorder a year ago by Dr. E. E. Hoxsey and other physicians, Mrs. Lydia Murray, who was ordered to pay the physicians for services by a jury in the Spokane superior court last month, has undergone a second operation to prove that she lost her appendix at the former operation. Following the second operation she filed a motion for a new trial, declaring that the operation showed the appendix had been removed.

The second operation was performed after Mrs. Murray was ordered to pay Dr. Hoxsey $285 for performing the first operation. Rather than pay for an operation in which she alleges that the surgeon removed her appendix without her authority, she submitted to a second operation to obtain evidence to support her contention that her appendix really had been taken out.

USE ELECTROCARDIOGRAPH.

Prisoner Caught Through Confession Made by Ally When He Thought Death Was Near—Crime Fourteen Years Old—Believe Instrument Will Tell True Story of Killing.

Omaha, Neb.—As the result of a confession made by another man on what he supposed was to be his deathbed Charles Koff of Vallejo, Cal., is to be brought back to Nebraska and tried for the murder of Julian Buhard, a miner of Julian, Neb., fourteen years ago. On a charge of being implicated in the same crime Euler Shellenberger of Burlington, Kan., also will be tried, the prosecution being based on the confession made when he thought he was dying, last July, after being prostrated by heat.

In questioning Koff about the murder the authorities will use a very delicate instrument known as the electrocardiograph, which records on a motion picture film the electric impulse generated by the human heart under the stress of emotions. Evidence thus recorded would not be admitted during a trial of a person for murder, but the record will be valuable for scientific reasons.

There are only five electrocardiographs in America, four being in the east and the one to be used on Koff being at the University of Nebraska. The instrument records the heart's fluctuations through a fiber so delicate it cannot be seen by the naked eye. The movement of the fiber is therefore passed through a small telescope, and by the aid of an electric arc lamp its shadow is recorded on the film. The instrument was invented by Professor Einthoven of Leyden, Holland.

According to Shellenberger's confession, Buhard kept his money in a tin can, which was cut open with a hatchet after the aged miner had been slain. In removing the money from the can, Shellenberger says, Koff cut one of his hands so badly on the jagged tin that a scar was left and may be seen today. In examining Koff the authorities will show him a can like the one described by Shellenberger and without letting him know Shellenberger has made a confession will refer to things of which Shellenberger spoke concerning the crime. Scientists say he may be able to control his facial expression and appear perfectly calm, but that the electrocardiograph nevertheless will record the vital variations in the beating of his heart as he hears or looks upon things associated with the murder.

Shellenberger has repudiated his confession, saying he was delirious when he made it. He is in a Nebraska jail, however, and must face trial. Koff has been employed at the Mare Island navy yard at San Francisco for the last nine years. After Shellenberger confessed detectives took up Koff's trail and arrested him.

CHIROPRACTIC

Chiropractic is founded upon an accurate knowledge of the BRAIN, SPINAL CORD and NERVE leading from the spinal cord through small openings in the spine, thus transmitting life's current to the various organs of the body.

The Brain is the Dynamo that generates life. The Nerves are the wires that transmit life. The Organs are the "motors" that do the work of the body.

Every Organ, tissue and cell is connected with the BRAIN by nerves.

Pressure upon the Nerves diminishes nerve force. Lack of Nerve Force leaves the body subject to disease.

To Remove the Pressure by adjusting the Spine, reestablishing the normal conditions of the Nerves and Nature readily restores the affected part.
